

Gerd Bucerius History Scholarship (fully-funded MA)

Call for Applications

Central European University is delighted to invite applications for the Gerd Bucerius History Scholarship (Master of Arts).

ZEIT-Stiftung Ebelin und Gerd Bucerius has generously partnered with Central European University to fund joint scholarships offered to high-achieving students who wish to pursue a one-year or two-year Master's degree in Comparative History at CEU's Department of History.

The scholarships include:

- a 100% tuition-waiver
- a monthly stipend for accommodation and living expenses
- a one-off research allowance of EUR 1000
- health insurance

Both the one-year and the two-year MA programs have a substantial research component, including a thesis project that allows students to pursue their own research in close collaboration with leading historians in their fields.

As an international faculty and student body we strive to think about history across geographical regions, historical periods, and academic disciplines. In order to foster a spirit of critical inquiry, students also receive solid training in historical methods and theory. In addition to the regular program of their degree, students can specialize in a range of non-degree subject areas and obtain certificates in:

- Archives and Evidentiary Practices
- Eastern Mediterranean Studies
- Jewish Studies
- Religious Studies
- Political Thought
- Visual Theory and Practice
- Central European Studies
- Romani Studies

The Gerd Bucerius History Scholarship provides full funding for both the one-year MA in Comparative History and the two-year MA in Comparative History from 1500 to the Present. For more information on what these programs offer, see CEU History Master of Arts Degree Programs.
